

PARIS DESIGN & INSPIRATION TRIP

October 23-31, 2009 with Kathryn Brenne

Paris is the fashion capital of the world! Join Kathryn Brenne for a designer's view of the most inspirational fashion city in the world. Participants will learn how to develop a trend forecasting story board portfolio. Discussion topics will include sketching, color, accessories, design details, fabrics and texture and factors that influence fashion. A tour of the fabric district with its wonderful button, trim and fabric stores will get your creative juices flowing! We will visit a wonderful notions store, second hand shops and have a walking tour of the Marais district with its small designer boutiques. See the newest trends and latest styles at a fashion show. There will be plenty of free time to tour Paris, stop at cafes, stroll the Avenue des Champs Elysees, visit museums, dream at designer boutiques, visit famous flea markets and fall in love with one of the most romantic cities. An optional embroidery class at the famous House of Lesage will be offered.
