

SPRINGTIME IN NEW YORK!

June 10-14, 2009

The garment district of New York is a sewer's paradise! Join Kathryn Brenne in New York City to visit some of her favorite fabric, button, trim and notion supply shops.

We will be staying at the Holiday Inn Midtown located on 57th Street between 8th and 9th Avenues. This convenient location is close to several bus and subway stops. The neighborhood offers many restaurants, fruit markets and a Whole Foods grocery store. The hotel has an outdoor swimming pool and a fitness center.

Our tour begins Wednesday afternoon with a walking tour of the garment and fabric district. Kathryn will introduce you to the many fabric shops and specialty stores that New York has to offer. Students will have free time to return, shop and explore on their own. A listing of our favorite stores with addresses and phone numbers will be provided. Students will have the opportunity to purchase fabrics, notions, pattern drafting equipment, tailoring supplies, millinery, trims, beads, jewelry findings, interfacings, buttons and more!

We have arranged a private lecture and tour of the permanent garment collections at FIT the Fashion Institute of Technology. Students will also have time to view the new Costume Gallery and the current exhibit. A stop at the FIT bookstore with their excellent selection of fashion related books is also planned.

Spend time exploring 5th Avenue, visit designer boutiques, walk about Soho and visit Canal Street. Students will be inspired by all of the latest fashions!

Sunday is free to explore, walk Central Park and travel home.
